<sup>1</sup> The UUSCLGJ is comprised of fifty Grand Jurys each unified amongst the counties within their respective States. All fifty States have unified nationally as an assembly of 1000's of People in the name of We the People to suppress through our Courts of Justice subverts both foreign and domestic acting under color of law within our governments.; States were unified by re-constituting all 3133 United States counties

<sup>2</sup> "The grand jury is an institution separate from the courts over whose functioning the courts do not preside... the grand jury is mentioned in the Bill of Rights, but not in the body of the Constitution. It has not been textually assigned, therefore, to any of the branches described in the first three (3) Articles. It is a constitutional fixture in its own right. In fact, the whole theory of its function is that it belongs to no branch of the institutional government, serving as a kind of buffer or referee between the Government and the people... The grand jury's functional independence from the judicial branch is evident, both in the scope of its power to investigate criminal wrongdoing, and in the manner in which that power is exercised. 'Unlike [a] [c]ourt, whose jurisdiction is predicated upon a specific case or controversy, the grand jury 'can investigate merely on suspicion that the law is being violated, or even because it wants assurance that it is not.'" United States v. John H. Williams; 112 S.Ct. 1735; 504 U.S. 36; 118 L.Ed.2d 352; 1992.

<sup>3</sup> "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." Declaration of Independence; "We the people... ordained and establish this Constitution for the United States of America." U.S. Constitution:

04/22/2016	454 R	Declaration by Lissa Casey regarding Emergency Motion for Extension of Time for Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Jurisdiction 453 R filed by Defendant Ammon Bundy (Casey, Lissa) (Entered: 04/22/2016)
04/25/2016	455	ORDER: The Court DENIES Defendant Ammon Bundy's "Emergency" Motion (#453) for Extension of Time. Bundy has been aware of the basis of his anticipated motion to dismiss for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction since these proceedings began and has not made any showing that he has been unable to prepare sufficiently despite due diligence. Moreover, the compressed timeline on which this case is proceeding (in large part at Ammon Bundy's insistence) does not allow for flexibility as to the timing of this first round of legal motions. Accordingly, the Court directs Ammon Bundy to file his anticipated motion to dismiss for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction no later than April 27, 2016. In addition, the Court notes it appears Ammon Bundy's anticipated motion relies on the type of historical and legal facts that do not ordinarily necessitate an evidentiary hearing or the examination of live witnesses. Accordingly, the Court directs Ammon Bundy to file any necessary supporting material in the form of declaration(s) together with his anticipated motion. After reviewing Ammon Bundy's submissions, the Court will determine whether an evidentiary hearing is necessary. Ordered by Judge Anna J. Brown. (dls) (Entered: 04/25/2016)

Bundy's Motion and attached Memorandum total 33 pages in length, the vast majority of which contains detailed factual background and legal argument that is only appropriately included in a memorandum in support. Accordingly, Bundy's Motion and Memorandum does not comply with the Court's Order 464 in which the Court granted Bundy's Motion 463 R for Leave to File Memorandum Over 10 Pages, and permitted Bundy to file a memorandum in support of his motion that did not exceed 15 pages. All pleadings must conform to the formatting requirements of Local Rule of Civil Procedure 10. If Defendant Bundy's re-filed motion does not comply with the Court's orders, the motion will be considered waived and may not be renewed. In the alternative, after real-time conferral with counsel for the government, Bundy may file no later than Noon on May 10, 2016, a second motion for leave to file an overlength brief together with a showing as to the necessity of a memorandum of greater than 15 pages.
